To be filled in by the current party to the agreement*The current party to the agreement may keep any additional services included in the subscription (emails, home page, virus protection, spam filter)I want to keep my additional services (subject to a charge) I do not want to keep any additional services (additional services will be terminated) Further information about changing the party to the agreement by filling in a form

You can change the party to the agreement by filling in this form if it is not possible to place or confirm an order using the OmaElisa service. The form should be used, for instance, when corporate customers are changing the party to the agreement, if the current party is deceased, or if neither the current party nor the new party have online banking credentials. More information about changing the party to the agreement is available (in Finnish) at elisa.fi/sopijanvaihto.

Changes made by filling in the form are charged in accordance with our customer service price list.

The price list is available at elisa.fi/asiakaspalveluhinnasto.

The possible fixed-term nature of the subscription agreement or other special terms and conditions will transfer to the new party intact. There cannot be any outstanding invoices related to the subscription. The current party to the agreement is responsible for the subscription until the change has taken place. Elisa has the right to check the customer's credit details and address details for the purposes of making the agreement. The entry into force of the agreement may require that an advance deposit or security is paid. In this case, the agreement enters into force when the advance deposit or security has been paid.

By signing the form, both the current party and the new party to the agreement accept the change as well as Elisa's valid general and service-specific delivery terms, which are available at elisa.fi/sopimusehdot.

If the change is made for a company, the signatory must be authorised to sign or they must have a power of attorney. A power of attorney that has not been filled in adequately cannot be accepted.
